SECTION 2

You are advised to spend about 50 minutes on this section.

You are very concerned with the declining standards of Zambia’s number one sport, football and decide to interview a number of people to find out why the Zambia National Football team is no longer a force to be reckoned with. After the interviews, you want to write a letter to the Football Association of Zambia (FAZ) Chairperson giving suggestions on how the once most popular sport could be improved. Below are the notes you took from the interviews.

- over enrolment in schools
- football in schools dead
- poor sports equipment and facilities
- selection of players not on merit
- Poor road net work
- local coaches a big let down
- standards low at club level
- traditional leaders marrying more than one wife
- players more interested in money
- lack of incentives
- team not exposed
- doctors still underpaid
- wrangles in Football Association of Zambia (FAZ)
- mines no longer interested in football and other sports
- Football Association of Zambia (FAZ) headquarters near mass media complex
- foreign based players playing for inferior clubs
- basketball not as popular as in America

Using the relevant notes only, write the letter to the Football Association of Zambia (FAZ) Chairperson giving your suggestions. Your letter should be between 250 and 350 words. Any words written beyond the word limit will be cancelled.
